

Präludium in B-Dur.

Ruhig, gefühlvoller Vortrag. Mit sanften Stimmen.

Fr. Michel

The image displays a musical score for a piano piece titled "Präludium in B-Dur" by Fr. Michel. The score is written for piano and consists of four systems of music, each with a treble and bass staff. The key signature is B major (two sharps: F# and C#), and the time signature is 3/4. The tempo and mood are indicated as "Ruhig, gefühlvoller Vortrag. Mit sanften Stimmen.".

The first system begins with a treble staff containing a whole rest followed by a melodic line of eighth notes. The bass staff starts with a half note G2, followed by a series of chords and eighth notes. A "Ped." (pedal) marking is placed above the first measure of the bass staff. The second system continues the melodic development in the treble and harmonic support in the bass, featuring some chromatic movement. The third system shows a more active bass line with eighth-note patterns. The fourth system concludes the piece with a final melodic phrase in the treble and a sustained bass line.

System 1 of a piano score in B-flat major. The right hand features a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a steady accompaniment of quarter notes. The system concludes with a whole rest in the right hand.

System 2 of the piano score. The right hand continues the melodic development with eighth notes and rests, while the left hand maintains the accompaniment. The system ends with a whole note chord in the right hand.

System 3 of the piano score. The right hand has a more active melodic line with sixteenth notes and rests. The left hand accompaniment includes some half notes and quarter notes. The system ends with a whole note chord in the right hand.

System 4 of the piano score, the final system on the page. The right hand features a melodic line with eighth notes and rests, leading to a final whole note chord. The left hand accompaniment consists of quarter notes and rests, also concluding with a whole note chord.
